

2012 Headlines for MWEEP

Cost-share and “giving back” policies make for sustainable changes. These are two of the philosophies MWEEP uses as a foundation for the organization. By educating girls and women, MWEEP gives them the tools they need to be successful and to break the cycle of poverty, dependence, forced marriages and early pregnancies.

RESULTS HONORS MWEEP The Kitsap Peninsula Global Humanitarian Award

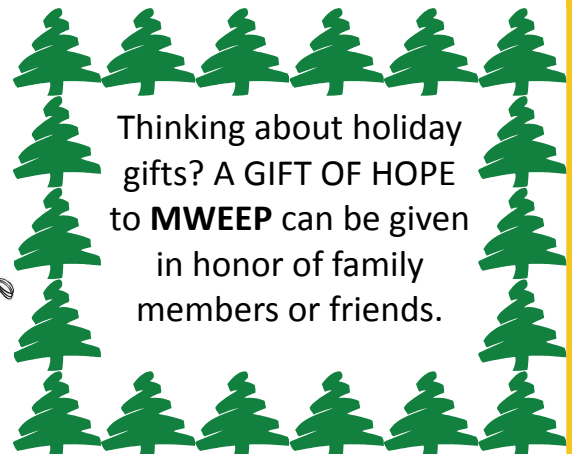

Ann’s jewelry sales send many girls to school.

MWEEP Treasurer, Pat O’Rourke, visited Kenya and met these girls. When asked what the future held for them, they all said,

“We are ALL going to school!”

Dr. Koi Tirima, MWEEP Advisory Board Member, talks about benefits of education for Kenyan girls provided by MWEEP.

Thinking about holiday gifts? A GIFT OF HOPE to MWEEP can be given in honor of family members or friends.
