

MWEEP marks 5 years of sharing the Gift of Hope “Believe in thine own self.

Believe all that thou hast hoped, and thou shalt achieve.”

(Sign at Olooseos Girls Secondary School visited by Sue Edwards, MWEEP board member in February, 2013)

Girls now believe they can study and become lawyers, journalists, teachers, tourism managers and doctors. The future is filled with hope.

Empowered women have become accountants, teachers, business administrators, and community leaders. They are the heart and soul of MWEEP Kenya.
